

We were visiting the memorials in Washington, D.C. on April 23rd and ran into a few veterans from your group. They all seemed to be enjoying themselves. We were lucky enough to speak to a couple and thank them for their service.
We were also surprised to see Gilbert Brown tagging along and got a photo with him.

Thank you for what you are doing for these veterans, who don't consider themselves heroes but if not for them our lives could be so different.
