NOTE TO THE CHARITY:

- By accepting this grant, your organization certifies to Schwab Charitable that:
  - No donor or individual related to the donor will receive any goods, services or other more than incidental private benefits. Examples may include but are not limited to: If the grant is for an event or gala, it does not pay for tickets or any goods purchased at auction. If the grant is for a membership, the membership must be considered 100% tax deductible. If the grant is to support missionary work, your organization will have full control and discretion regarding its use and application. If the grant is for a scholarship, the donor does not have control over the distribution of funds. If the grant is to a school or educational fund, it does not pay for the tuition of the donor or any related individual nor for preferential tickets, seating or access to events.
  - The grant will not be used to fulfill a pre-existing legally binding pledge.
  - If grantee is a government entity, the grant funds can be used solely for public purposes as that term is used in Section 170(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- Your organization should not provide the donor a tax receipt for this grant, as Schwab Charitable has already provided the donor with a tax receipt at the time of contribution. Please do not send thank you notes or marketing materials to Schwab Charitable.
- Grants and account names are recommendations of the donor and do not reflect the views of Schwab Charitable, Charles Schwab & Co. Inc. or any of its affiliates.

Schwab Charitable is the name used for the combined programs and services of Schwab Charitable Fund, an independent nonprofit organization. Schwab Charitable Fund is recognized as a tax-exempt public charity as defined in Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") Sections 501(c)(3), 509(a)(1), and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi). Schwab Charitable Fund has entered into service agreements with certain affiliates of The Charles Schwab Corporation.
