Hello,

I am the author of a book - Two Fathers One War - I don't sell many any more, but when I do, I donate the money (including printing costs) to the Honor Flight.

I'm sorry I don't do more, but am thankful for the chance to contribute.

I was a guardian in Sept of 2014, an experience I will never ever forget.

God Bless all of you who make this possible and again I'm sorry it isn't more, but hope to donate again in the near future - as I have in the past.
